

Heroin in Jersey Shore: What YOU Need to Know!

Two Presentations & Town Hall Meeting
at the Wheeland Center

1212 Locust Street, Jersey Shore, PA

Wednesday, May 25 at 7 p.m.

The heroin epidemic is the single greatest threat to community health in Lycoming County, and Jersey Shore is no exception.

Bring your friends, family, and co-workers to hear the amazing facts surrounding the most important issue of our time.

Learn why every man, woman, and child is vulnerable to being affected by this crisis and steps you can take to protect yourself and loved ones.

Learn what Project Bald Eagle is doing in our communities to stem the tide of the heroin epidemic and what YOU can do to help.

Free & open to the public

The Unbelievable Truth About Heroin

Steve Murphy Shope

Executive Director, Project Bald Eagle

A Personal Account: Losing a Loved One to Heroin

Rev. Andrew France

Q&A Session will be held following the presentations.
